Biography

I am a lifelong Michigan resident living in Kalamazoo, MI. I retired from the Michigan Air National Guard at the rank of Master Sergeant in 2002 with over 21 years of military service. I attended my first NFL football game in 1975 at the age of 16. Over the years I have attended games in the USFL in the 1980s, the Arena Football League, the Canadian Football League, college, high school and pee-wee football games as well as many indoor football league and women's football games. I have written over 300 articles on the subject of football and have traveled the eastern half of the country over the past several years attending games and visiting historical football locations. I am a current member of the Professional Football Researchers Association and a past member of the Arena Football League Writer's Association. My home club is the Logistics Center Toastmasters Club in Battle Creek, Michigan.
